

Holidays & Trips

Red Sea - March 2006

All reserved places for the trip to the Red Sea in March 2006 have now been booked.

Anyone wishing to reserve a place can still contact us and we will endeavour to reserve you a place on the same flights as the rest of the party.

Forthcoming trips

We are working through the list of places to dive during 2006 with a view to providing plenty of well organised and regular trips throughout 2006.

Forthcoming trips will be advertised via the website or through club member priority emails. If you want to suggest a site for inclusion within the 2006 diving schedule please contact us at info@canarydivers.com.

Currently under consideration are:

- HMS Scylla (Cornwall)
- Wast Water
- Hodge Close
- Lake Coniston
- St. Abbs
- Oban
- Anglesey
- ..plus many others!

Store and Member news

Online Price Blitz!

The online store has recently undergone a massive price blitz to make our facility more competitive in this market.

Take a look at the updated online store at www.canarydivers.com and click on the Online Store menu item.

Online Payments

We have recently improved the functionality of the online store to include secure card processing through Protx and Streamline. You can now complete payments either using this new secure service or via PayPal.

Member Discounts

We must be mad! During December all club members can get huge discounts off our regular course prices. Club members should have received an email with details, if you haven't then contact us and we'll send you details of these fantastic deals.

Why not take advantage of our madness and take your diving to the next level? Book the course before Christmas to take advantage of these deals and undertake your training at your convenience (or when it gets a bit warmer if you wish).
