New Look, New Start – New Challenges!

Canary Divers Relaunches.....

OK, some of our members have guessed for a while that new things are afoot at Canary Divers – we can now reveal all. We are relaunching from 1st August under a new partnership ownership of

Stuart Blackledge, Alan Holden, Mick Sutcliffe and Stewart Cross

The new team is aimed at sharing the workload so that both the club and the business can thrive going forward during these difficult economic times

More Ownership = Easier Workload

As you'll notice with this newsletter and soon to be updated website, we are rebranding and reorganising. As we move forward we are trying to create:

-  Improved members benefits (watch this space)
-  Better looking / stocked shop (come have a look at the early signs already)
-  New working facilities (come along and see our new shed!)
-  New Club Merchandise
-  More courses for all skill levels
-  More trips to more places (members will receive a discount and preferential booking of places)
-  More social events
-  More member communications
